Q What kind of assistance is provided to children traveling as unaccompanied minors on international flights?

Please see below on how we assist children traveling alone throughout the international journey.

• Check-in

Go to a check-in counter for "Passengers with special needs" and fill out an application form for the Unaccompanied Minor Service. From that point on, your child will be escorted by a designated staff member.

Please ask our staff for assistance if check-in counters for "Passengers with special needs" are not available at your departure airport.

• Getting on a plane

① Your child will go through immigration and security screening and board the plane with a designated staff member.

② For flights from Korea, SMS notifications will be sent to the child's guardians in Korea.

• During a flight

Our cabin crew will assist your child throughout the flight (the Flying Mom Service is offered on select routes).

• Arrival at destination

Upon arrival, your child will be accompanied by a designated staff member from the gate until he/she is met by the designated guardian.
